

Sacred Heart RC Nursery & Primary School

Friday Flyer

7th June 2024

Dear Parents / Carers,

Today, we celebrated the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This started with a special assembly where the children had to locate all the areas in the school where representations of the Sacred Heart were present. I awarded them with a wine -coloured heart as a reminder that we should always try and act as Christ's hands, feet and mouths on Earth. We talked about the effect that doing the opposite can have on others and that bullying can happen to all of us when people chose not to follow the Gospel values.

As a celebration of the day, I had arranged a treat for the whole school. Not everyone gets to visits theatres and see live shows so today we brought a musical theatre performance to Sacred Heart. It was wonderful to hear the laughter and see the sheer joy on the children's faces. Some lucky children even got to part of the show, with all joining in the songs which they had learnt earlier in the day at the workshop. 'Bringing out the Harvest' will be ringing through my head for days.

Congratulations Miss Shaw

My next news gives great joy and great sadness rolled into one. Over the half term, Miss Shaw got engaged. She and her soon to be husband, also a teacher, have made the decision to move to Dubai to teach in September. Whereas this is a super exciting venture for them, it is super sad for us as we have to say goodbye. Whilst Miss Shaw has only been with us for three and half years, I am sure that you'll all agree that her bright smile and enthusiasm for the role has brought joy to the children she has taught over this time. We will all miss her greatly.

Mr Joshua Mason has been appointed as Miss Shaw's replacement. Mr Mason is presently teaching at Our Lady and St Patrick's Catholic Primary in Teignmouth which is part of our Trust of schools. He is sure to be a great asset to Sacred Heart as the first thing he has promised to do is start a football team in the Autumn term which I know many of the children will be delighted to hear. More on Mr Mason next week.

Have a lovely weekend
