Friday Flyer

Friday 19th January 2024

Dear Parents / Carers,

Thank you for being patient with the gates for the last couple of days. We are no further on with fixing the lock so a new one has been ordered and we will have to somehow cut the stuck one off next week. A volunteer with the appropriate tools for cutting through locks would be most welcome.

School Library Books

Devon Library Service have advised a new suggested payments for lost books. We keep records of all the library books borrowed by individual children and when books do not get returned, we need to cover the costs of replacements. The updated costs of a replacement book is £6 for paperback and £10 for hardback. Further details of how to pay for replacements is found on the 'lost book' letter. You will only receive this letter if your child has not returned their book. Of course, if you can locate the book after receiving the letter, that's even better news for our library.

Parking

Last week, we had a near miss with a child in the Church carpark. Please remember that parents are not permitted to park in the Church carpark at drop off or pick up times. This is to keep our children safe.

Yesterday morning we noticed a traffic warden outside the back school gates. He was issuing fines to anyone parked or waiting on the yellow zigzag lines marked SCHOOL – KEEP – CLEAR. We were not aware he was coming but after speaking to him, he shared that Torbay are doing safety checks outside all local schools on a rotation at the moment for spot checks. He did say he would be returning.

Jay's Aim – CPR training

It was such a shame that the training had to be postponed today. Unfortunately, the trainer is in hospital and they were unable to find a replacement at short notice. We will let you know when we've rearranged a new date.

Swimming Gala

Good luck to the KS2 children taking part in the swim gala at Torbay Leisure Centre next Thursday. Y3: Max Y4: Lily R, Eryn and Harry; Y5: Aoife and Isaac and Y6: Seb and Florence

Catholic Life

Following a scripture reading on love (Corinthians 13:4-7), Y6 had to consider how life might be changed if everyone followed the rule of love. Here is Rupert's interpretation. A worthy recipient of a Headteacher's Award today.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. <sup>5</sup> It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. <sup>6</sup> Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. <sup>7</sup> It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part, <sup>10</sup> but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. <sup>12</sup> For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

<sup>13</sup> And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

BUT THE GREATEST OF THESE IS LOVE

If everyone followed this rule of love, their world would not be what's going on today. People would care, welcome and love each other. There would not be terrorism or racism. Humans would not kill their own kind: no countries would start wars. People would be loving to one another. They would welcome each other into their lives. They would get to know each other and understand one another. Birds would not be trapped in cages, elephants would not be in circuses.

There would not be jealousy but kindness; hatred would be replaced by love.

The word 'friend' would have a meaning to everyone.

By Rupert Y6

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Nichola Day
